

SGT. JOHN F. LONCRINI

Sgt. Loncrini Wins Recognition In Vietnam

WITH U. S. COMBAT AIR FORCES, Vietnam — Sergeant John F. Loncrini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Loncrini of 128 Cooley St., Agawam, Mass., has been recognized for helping his organization, the 1964th Communications Group, earn the U. S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award for a third consecutive year in Vietnam.

Sergeant Loncrini a communications specialist, will wear a distinctive service ribbon as a permanent decoration.

The major Air Force Communications Service (AFCS) unit in Vietnam, the 1964th is headquartered at Tan Son Nhut Air Base and has 10 subordinate squadrons operating throughout the country.

The organization was nominated for the award by General William W. Momyer, commander of the U. S. Seventh Air Force, Vietnam, for its "Yankee ingenuity" and outstanding proficiency in providing direct communications, navigational aids and air traffic control in the combat zone during a period of greatly expanding tactical operations. The general cited the 1964th for its high degree of professionalism in spite of "extreme difficulties associated with living and working under field conditions."

Group achievements included handling nearly 350,000 takeoffs and landings by AFCS air traffic controllers during a single month. During the year they also prevented the possible loss of 48 costly aircraft and their crews through expert guidance during inflight emergencies.

In addition to operating an in-country communications network to support combat operations, group personnel inaugurated telephone service between theater USAF Military Affiliate Radio System (MARS) stations and field hospitals, enabling American patients to talk with their families in the states.

Sergeant Loncrini is a 1965 graduate of Agawam High School.

MASS. CASH BALANCE $68 MILLION FOR MARCH

Massachusetts' cash balance for March was $68 million, State Treasurer, Robert Q. Crane announced today in his monthly report on the financial condition of the Commonwealth.

State Treasurer Crane pointed out that because March total disbursements exceeded total receipts by nearly $2 million the state's cash balance for March was $1.9 million less than the February balance.

The state treasurer's report showed the March cash balance as $68,017,073.89 as compared to $69,915,383.05 for February. Total disbursements by the state for March, Treasurer Crane added, were $292,780,536.58 as against total receipts of $290,882,227.42.

Treasurer Crane's report further shows the state's bonded indebtedness still over the one billion dollar mark. As of April 1, he said, total indebtedness was $1,069,795,000 while a year ago it was $935,066,000.

Westfield Savings Bank

Assets Increase Over Last Year

WESTFIELD — Total assets of Westfield Savings Bank on March 31 were a record $54,104,408, representing an increase for the year of $3,973,796, Arthur W. Knapp, president, reported during the 115th meeting of corporators of the bank at the Sheraton Inn on Wednesday night.

"The past year has been a very fine year for Westfield Savings Bank," Mr. Knapp said. "Savings deposits have remained at a good level, and the demand for mortgages is very strong, reflecting the excellent housing activity in the Greater Westfield area. The year 1968 also is a year of promise, and I am confident the bank will continue its record of growth."

The Westfield Savings president reported that savings deposits on March 31 were also at a record figure, $47,456,897, for an increase of $3,065,388 during the year. The bank, which has almost 30,000 depositors, is currently paying dividends at the rate of 4-1/2 percent on regular savings accounts and 5 percent on special notice, or 90-day, accounts.

Real estate loans were also at a new high of $41,154,159, with the increase during the year totaling $4,199,442.

"I regard the demand for home mortgages significant and pleasing, from the point of view of the bank and of our communities," Mr. Knapp said, "because when homes are being built it means that the business and industrial segments of the communities are flourishing, with a favorable impact on the economy. I look for this to continue."

He told the corporators that construction of the bank's new Agawam branch is progressing satisfactorily, "and we anticipate offering the services of Westfield Savings Bank to that community in the near future."

The new Agawam branch is a brick colonial building being constructed on a two-acre site at 655 Main Street in Agawam. It will bring the number of Westfield Savings offices to four.

During the meeting Mr. Knapp was re-elected president, and vice-presidents re-elected were: Norman A. Clarke, president of the Columbia Manufacturing Co., David C. Colton, president of the Colton Agency, Inc., and Wesley L. Mitchell, retired vice-president of the Western Mass. Electric Co.

Trustees re-elected for three-year terms were: Harold L. Drake of the Stevens Paper Mills; Charles A. Godin, president of the Adams Nursery; Lewis C. Parker, Jr., of White Industries, Inc.; A. Stanley Rzewski, Westfield drugstore owner; Ralph D. Neth, treasurer of Westfield Savings Bank; and Mr. Knapp. Horace N. Fuller was re-elected clerk of the corporation.

The auditing committee elected Hitchcock and Co. of Springfield, certified public accountants, to conduct the annual audit of the bank.

COUGHIN TOO OFTEN? TIME TO SEE DOCTOR

Habitual throat-clearing and coughing are so common among dwellers in today's irritant-loaded environment, they're apt to pass unnoticed. That might not be so bad if it weren't for the fact that the habitual cougher frequently fails to notice it himself. Or if he is aware of it, he yields to the temptation to shrug it off.

Actually, it's a little late in the day to pretend that persistent coughing is just a harmless little idiosyncrasy. The days when a cough was just a cough and what of it are as obsolete as the mus-tache cup.

Years of research and medical history have confirmed the fact that a chronic cough may be a symptom of respiratory disease which may seriously threaten health or even life. This fact has been emphasized to the general public repeatedly by official and voluntary health agencies since the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association mounted its first nationwide RD educational campaign in 1963 with the slogan, "Short of breath? Cough too much? See your doctor — you may have a respiratory disease."

A cough is considered chronic if it persists beyond three or four weeks, or if it clears up but keeps coming back. Such a cough can be symptomatic of a chronic respiratory disease such as emphysema, chronic bronchitis, asthma, TB, or lung cancer. The earlier such an ailment is diagnosed, the better the chance of its being treated effectively. If you have a cough you can't shake off, two immediate courses of action are advisable: stop smoking, and see your doctor. Your Christmas Seal organization has an informative leaflet, "Chronic Cough, the Facts." Ask for it — it's free.

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
MARTYRED APRIL 4, 1968

Taken out of context from Dr. King's book,
"Why We Can't Wait," Harper & Row, 1964

"One hundred and fifty years ago, when the Negro was a thing, a chattel whose body belonged to his white master, certain slave-owners worked out arrangements whereby a slave could purchase himself and become a freedman, Hard-earned dollars were paid for a legal instrument of manumission which declared its holder relieved of the bondage of physical slavery.

"As this movement grew, some Negroes devoted their lives to the purchase and liberation of others. 'Help me buy my mother,' or 'Help me buy my child' brought the deep torture of black people's souls into stark focus for many whites to whom the horror of slavery had been emotionally remote.

"As one approaches the emancipation of today's Negro from all those traumatic ties that still bind him to slaveries other than the physical, this half-forgotten system that bartered dignity for dollars stands as a painful reminder of the capacity of society to remain complacent in the midst of injustice. There is a terrible parallel between the greedy hand of a slave trafficker who sold a Negro his own person, and the admonishing finger of people who say, 'What more will the Negro expect if he gains integrated schools, public facilities, voting rights and progress in housing?'

"What is implied here is the amazing assumption that society has the right to bargain with the Negro for the freedom which inherently belongs to him."

Carmen Biagini Named Camp Director by Agawam YMCA

Mario J. Sakellis, executive director of the Agawam YMCA, announced today that Carmen Biagini has been appointed camp director of the Agawam YMCA Camp operations. This includes Camp Little Steam for preschool boys and girls; Camp Millbrook, The YMCA Day Camp for grades 1-6; and Leaders in Training for junior high boys and girls in grades 7-9. Mr. Biagini will be responsible for a staff of about 20.

Mr. Biagini is a senior at Westfield State College and plans to teach in the elementary school system. He is married to the former Carol Trombley. They have one daughter, Linda Lee, and they reside at 451 Elm Street, West Springfield. Mr. Biagini was camp director last season and under his leadership the camp enrollments increased. Registrations for camp enrollment are now being taken. Parents should

Snelling and Snelling Offers Free Summer Jobs To Students

The Springfield, Mass. office of Snelling and Snelling, Personnel Consultants, is offering free counselling on summer jobs for area youth, General Manager Henry Parish announced today.

The program is open to all local high school and college students. It is designed to enable them to earn tuition money for the coming year and to gain valuable working experience.

By the start of summer vacation, all of the local companies will have been asked to provide Snelling and Snelling with descriptions of available summer jobs. As they come in, the job orders are being posted on a bulletin board in the office of 135 State Street.

Mr. Parish emphasized that any area student may check the board as often as he wishes, and that no fee will be charged to employer or employee for any job obtained through the Summer Job Program.

In addition, each applicant is given a free booklet which offers helpful information on average pay for typical summer jobs, the type of jobs generally available, and hints on interviewing.

Many positions go unfilled because the students have had little experience in job-hunting. "It is sometimes difficult to find the summer applicant exactly what he is looking for," says Mr. Parish, "but it is our business to know the employment market. We cannot promise him an ideal job. However, we can give him several valuable leads on where jobs are broidered rose in silk floss. The needlework reflects the taste of the period. Decorative needlework was a great pastime and was originally done by proper young ladies with few domestic responsibilities. Eventually women in all stations of life did ornate needlecraft.

Instructions and patterns for needlework were readily available. Some ladies created their own designs, others copied — stitch by counted stitch. Few objects escaped embellishment by the Victorian needlewoman. She determined to leave no space uncluttered and she pursued this objective with needle in hand and a pattern as her guide.
